

BANGALORE DISTRICT:

Notification dated 22nd April 1913.

It is hereby notified for general information that the exclusive privilege of collecting tangadi (Cassia auriculata) and kakke (Cassia fistula) barks on all Government unoccupied lands (except Plantations) and including State Forests (except exploited coupes) and Commissariat kavals in the undermentioned taluks of the Bangalore District, from 1st July 1913 up to end of June 1915, will be sold talukwar by public auction by the District Forest Officer in conjunction with the Deputy Commissioner or other officer deputed by him, at the Deputy Commissioner's office at Bangalore on 5th June 1913.

From 1st July 1913 to 30th June 1915.

(1) Kankanhalli	(3) Bangalore	(5) Anekal	(7) Devanahalli	(9) Closepet
(2) Magadi	(4) Nelamangala	(6) Doddaballapur	(8) Channarayana	(10) Hoskote

2. The auction will commence at 2 p.m. on the day of sale, and, if the sale is not completed on the same day, it will be continued on the next following day at the same hour.

3. The exclusive privilege above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who reserves to himself the right to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else, unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 100. The deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned at the close of sale. The successful bidder shall, within five days after the confirmation of the sale is intimated to him, pay into the Bangalore District Treasury one-fourth of the total rental including the deposit already made and furnish sufficient security for the balance. Should he fail to do so, the deposit will be forfeited and the exclusive privilege will be re-sold by the officers conducting the sale.

5. Re-sale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of a loss by such re-sale, shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale.

6. The lessee shall sign an agreement and also deposit Rs. 100 towards security, binding himself to observe the conditions below, which should be executed within seven days from the date on which the confirmation of the sale may be intimated to him. In default he will forfeit the deposit and the right will be re-sold.

The balance of the lease amount and local cess at one anna in the rupee on the whole sum shall be payable in eight equal khists as follows:—

1st khist on 1st August 1913, 2nd khist on 1st October 1913, 3rd khist on 3rd January 1914, 4th khist on 1st April 1914, 5th khist on 1st July 1914, 6th khist on 1st October 1914, 7th khist on 3rd January 1915 and 8th khist on 1st April 1915.

In the event of any khist not being so paid, all collection and removal of the barks will be stopped, and the whole of the balance of lease amount will become payable at once and be recovered as a revenue demand, in addition to forfeiture on the lease.

Conditions.

- (1) No stem or shoot under one year old to be cut or barked.
- (2) To hold himself responsible to prevent the felling of tender stems by his servants or sub-contractors.
- (3) To furnish a list of sub-contractors and mestris who may be appointed for the collection of bark in the different working circles, and of the places where the produce will be kept stored before removal from each working circle.
- (4) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.
- (5) Not to enter any State Forest for collecting bark without the written permission of the Range Officer and Forester in charge of such forest.
- (6) Not to collect bark in such portions of State Forests as are closed against the public on account of planting, reproduction or other forest operations.
- (7) To keep accounts showing the quantity of the bark removed in accordance with the lease and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Deputy Commissioner or the District Forest Officer or any other officer deputed by either of them.
- (8) To provide passes for each cart-load of bark in such manner as may be laid down by the District Forest Officer.

(9) To remove out of the limits of the Bangalore District, and before 15th July 1915, all bark cut, collected and stored in the several kotis of the district as well as railway stations.

(10) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled, all the bark collected and stored up to date to be confiscated and the whole of the lease amount paid by the contractor or such portion thereof as may be decided by the Deputy Commissioner to be forfeited to Government.

(11) The lessee shall not be entitled to any rebate on account of lands taken up for cultivation during the currency of the lease, nor will Government make any extra demand for lands resigned from occupation. (Vide Government Order No. R. 5455-64—Ft. 179-09-6, dated 25th March 1911.)

MYSORE DISTRICT.

Notification dated 25th April 1913.

1. The right of collecting fees at the market at Santemarahalli in the Chamrajnagar Taluk, from the 1st July 1913 to the 30th June 1914, will be sold by the Deputy Commissioner or any other officer deputed for the purpose, by public auction, at the Police Station at Santemarahalli on the 27th May 1913.

2. The successful purchaser must collect fees only at the rates noted in the annexed schedule, and at no higher rates, and only on the articles that would be brought on santedays within the market premises, the boundary of which will be distinctly marked out by the Amildar.

3. The Deputy Commissioner reserves to himself the power of refusing the highest or any bid that may be offered, without assigning any reason therefor.

4. The contract amount is payable in twelve monthly instalments due on or before the 10th of the following month. The contractor shall pay as soon as the sale is over, a deposit equal to two months' instalments for the due performance of the contract. The amount in deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract.

5. If the deposits is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of the first purchaser. If default is made in the payment of the instalment, interest at one pie per rupee per month will be levied on the amount due till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold again at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner, and the deficit will be recovered from the contractor, who shall not be entitled to the profits, if any.

6. The contractor is also bound to keep an account showing in detail the daily collections, and it shall be open to inspection by the taluk and district authorities.

7. Any breach of the above rules on the part of the contractor or his servants being liable to cancellation.
